ABOUT THE AUTHOR — Tony Tallarico

The author and illustrator of more than 1,000 children's books, Tony Tallarico got his start in comics in 1953, penciling and self-inking stories for such publishers as Charlton, Trojan, and the David C. Cook Publishing Company. His popular creations include the Where Are They? series, which has sold more than 15 million copies in a dozen languages. Tony also created the first black hero comic book, Lobo, and the first political satire comic book, The Great Society Comic Book.

In Chuck Whelon's new series, the pictures are all there — but the words are missing! Each book offers more than 60 pages of wacky cartoon scenarios. Children ages 8 and up can fill in the blank word balloons to create their own sidesplitting stories.

Word Play! Write Your Own Crazy Comics #1

Chuck Whelon

Kids can cultivate their storytelling skills with these kooky comics. More than 60 pages of cartoon panels illustrate funny situations — but all the word balloons are empty. Aspiring comedy writers can supply each scene with witty dialogue. For even more fun, they can color the pictures. Dover Original.

BURJ KHALIFA FUN FACTS!

It's presently the Tallest Building in the World (as of January 2010)

It has 160 habitable floors! (If you count the floors used for mechanical purposes such as air conditioning equipment, there are 206 floors!)

The skyscraper was originally called Burj Dubai (burj means "tower" in Arabic). It was renamed to honor Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, ruler of Abu Dhabi.

It stands 2,717 feet (828 meters)!

The tallest building in the United States is Chicago's Willis (formerly Sears) Tower. At a height of 1,451 feet, it reigned as the world's tallest building from 1973 to 1996.

Even if you put New York's Chrysler Building on top of the Empire State Building, that still wouldn't equal the height of the Burj Khalifa!

More than 12,000 people will occupy the building's 6 million square feet!

The Burj Khalifa has the highest observation deck in the world (on the 124th floor)! On a clear day, it's a 60-mile (100 kilometer) view!

The Tallest Building in the World Cut & AssembleBurj Khalifa

A. G. Smith

Just about anyone can build this magnificent 2-foot-high replica of the world's tallest skyscraper with little more than scissors and glue! Complete, easy-to-follow instructions and clear diagrams guide crafters in constructing an authentically detailed model of the Burj Khalifa, a 2,717-foot structure located in the center of downtown Dubai. This expertly designed model is fun and educational for ages 10 and up.

One of the most beloved children's book authors of all time — and a noted conservationist — Thornton W. Burgess was the author of more than 170 books. He created a host of memorable animal characters, including Peter Rabbit, Jimmy Skunk, Sammy Jay, Bobby Raccoon, Spotty the Turtle, and others. Since 1991, Dover has published affordable editions of Burgess's most popular works. Combined, they have sold hundreds of thousands of copies.

Old Mother West Wind
The Centennial Anniversary Edition
Thornton W. Burgess with Illustrations by George Kerr

Offered together for the first time in one volume, this hardcover edition includes Thornton W. Burgess's first published work, Old Mother West Wind, and its 1911 follow-up, Mother West Wind's Children. Filled with positive lessons for children and gentle tales about ecology, the books marked the author's arrival as a significant figure in children's literature. This 100th anniversary edition includes George Kerr's original illustrations.
